

PATTERNED GIFT WRAP

WITH KATIE WHYTE

WHAT YOU NEED:

- One big sheet of paper
- Colourful paper to cut up, newspaper or magazines
- Scissors
- Glue stick
- Sticky tape to use for wrapping
- Clear contact for book wrapping (optional)

WHAT YOU NEED TO DO:

1

SELECT.

Select your paper. You can use news paper, craft paper, or look for colourful sections in magazines. I also used a cleaned chip packet because I liked how shiny it is.

2

CUT OUT.

Cut out shapes using scissors. Will you use the same shape over and over like these polka dots, or use different shapes for your pattern?

3

ARRANGE.

Arrange the shapes in the pattern you like. What patterns will you make? Will you use small or big shapes? Round or long shapes? Are your shapes going to be close together or spaced out?

4

FIX.

Fix to the paper using a glue stick. Make sure to use plenty of glue so that your shapes don't fall off. And that's it. You've made your very own gift wrap. You can use it to wrap books, presents or anything you like. You can even use leftover gift wrap to make a matching card if you like.
